February 4, 2022

Please do the daily health check prior to leaving home for school or work and continue to pay attention to updated COVID information coming from the school!

PAC HOT LUNCH

We have received word from the School District that Hot Lunch will remain on hold for the entire District through the month of February. When we can resume, you will be informed. Thank you for your understanding.

DAILY HEALTH CHECK AND COVID-19 SYMPTOMS FLOW CHART ON WEBSITE

For your convenience, we have placed the Daily Health Check and the Covid-19 Symptoms Flow Chart on our website in case you misplace your copy. You will find the most up-to-date information in the "Latest News" section of our website.

EARLY DISMISSAL FOR CONFERENCES

On February 16th and 17th, all students will be dismissed at 1:45pm for conferences. Don't forget to make plans to have your children picked up early on those dates. For the safety of staff, students, and parents, conferences will take place virtually or by phone. Please keep an eye out for the conference letter from your child's teacher.

INTENT TO RETURN SURVEYS

Thank you to those families that read last week's newsletter and emailed their Intent to Return Surveys to the office! Please keep them coming...!

2021-2022 RICHMOND CONTINUING EDUCATION (RCE) BULLETIN

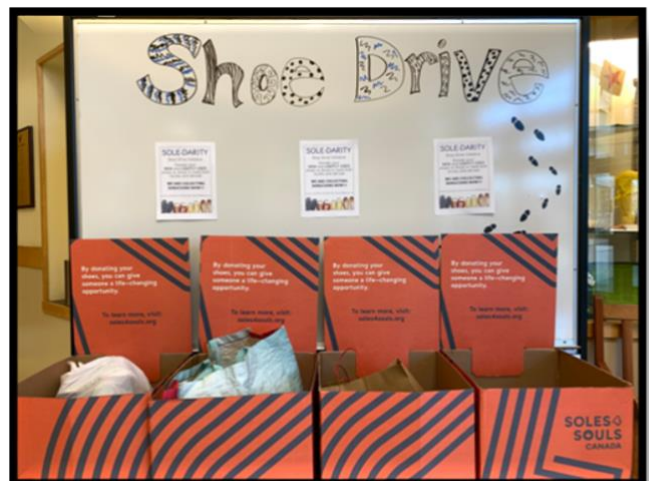

Attached to this newsletter, you will find some highlights from RCE along with contact information. There are opportunities for both children and adults.

SETTLEMENT WORKERS IN SCHOOLS (SWIS)

SWIS Workers in Richmond provide a valuable service to our newcomer families, helping them get settled in our community. On our school website is a list of both adult and youth opportunities for the month of February.

SHOE DRIVE CONTINUES!

There is still time for families to participate in our Shoe Drive. Keep those donations coming and help us in our efforts to show kindness to our community!

SCHOLASTIC BOOK FAIR

Save the Date!

Our school's Book Fair is going online, so save the date! From Monday February 14 to Friday, February 18th, discover exciting new and bestselling titles from the comfort of your home.

Students will also be able to come to the book fair in-person during their weekly book exchange times.

More information about the Book Fair will be shared in the next week.

Bonus: Every purchase supports our school and helps to keep kids reading!
